

Nadda for innovation of cheaper new drugs

Gandhinagar, Jan 12: Health minister JP Nadda on Monday underlined the need for innovation of new drugs at low cost which are affordable to the poorest, even as he sought to strike a balance between commercial and medical spendings. "We need innovation in medical appliances and methodology. In the pharmaceutical sector we are good in generics but have to consider to innovate new drugs at low cost," he said.

PTI

Gor.