

Govt gears up for e-pharmacies

New Delhi: The government wants to examine rules and regulations to make e-pharmacies—online chemists—a “safer and viable option” for consumers, drugs controller general G.N. Singh said. The new rules will be drafted in four months. Several guidelines and issues were discussed between the drugs controller general of India (DCGI) and various stakeholders on Wednesday at a meeting organised by industry body the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry. SHREYA PUNJ
