

Chinese pharma imports unfortunate: Govt

Terming the import of large quantities of pharmaceutical ingredients from China as "unfortunate", the government on Tuesday said it plans to boost their production in the country. Responding to a question on import of 'inferior' quality of active pharma ingredients from China, Minister of State for Pharmaceuticals & Chemicals Hansraj Gangaram Ahir said it is "unfortunate" that India continues to import from China. PTK

Miscellaneous