Suven gets US patent for potential drug

Hyderabad: Suven Life Sciences Ltd on Wednesday said it has secured a product patent in the US corresponding to a new chemical entity for the treatment of disorders associated with neurodegenerative diseases. With this approval, Suven said its drug discovery portfolio has expanded into several new therapeutic areas such as major depressive disorder, obesity and pain through neuronal nicotinic receptor modulators. The company said the patent was valid through 2030. VISWANATH PILLA ●
