

Shasun Pharma acquires global rights for Ibuprofen OTC tablets

Chennai, May 5: Shasun Pharmaceuticals, through its wholly-owned subsidiary SVADS Holdings Switzerland (SVADS), has acquired the global rights from the US-based ScolrPharma to develop and commercialise Ibuprofen 12-hour Extended Release OTC tablets as well as the associated Controlled Release Technology (CDT) along with global rights of Nuprin trademark, a popular brand in analgesics for an undisclosed amount. OTC tablets, having completed a successful Phase III in the US, is a differentiated long-acting non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug in the global OTC analgesic market.

fe Bureau

Patents

878