

GSK NET PROFIT UP AT ₹172CR

New Delhi: GlaxoSmithKline Consumer Healthcare on Friday reported a net profit of ₹171.71 crore for the January-March quarter. The company had posted a net profit of ₹156.41 crore for the same period of previous fiscal. The company's net sales stood at ₹1,079.09 crore for the January-March quarter, while the same was at ₹939.86 crore in the previous fiscal, GlaxoSmithKline Consumer

Healthcare (GSKCH) said in a filing to the BSE. The company said it has changed the accounting year from January-December to April-March. "Accordingly, current year's financial statement of the company are for a period of fifteen months...These figures are therefore not comparable with those of the previous year ended December 31, 2012," it added. — PTI

Company

893