

CCI probing chemists, drug associations

New Delhi: The Competition Commission of India (CCI) has initiated a probe into the restrictive conditions imposed by chemists and druggists associations on pharmaceutical firms and retail shops on the sale and purchase of medicines.

"CCI is probing cartel-like behaviour of the chemists and druggist associations on the basis of complaints filed by various pharmacies," a person close to the development said. PTI

Cmt.